Success

THE HEARTBEAT OF P.H.S. — SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

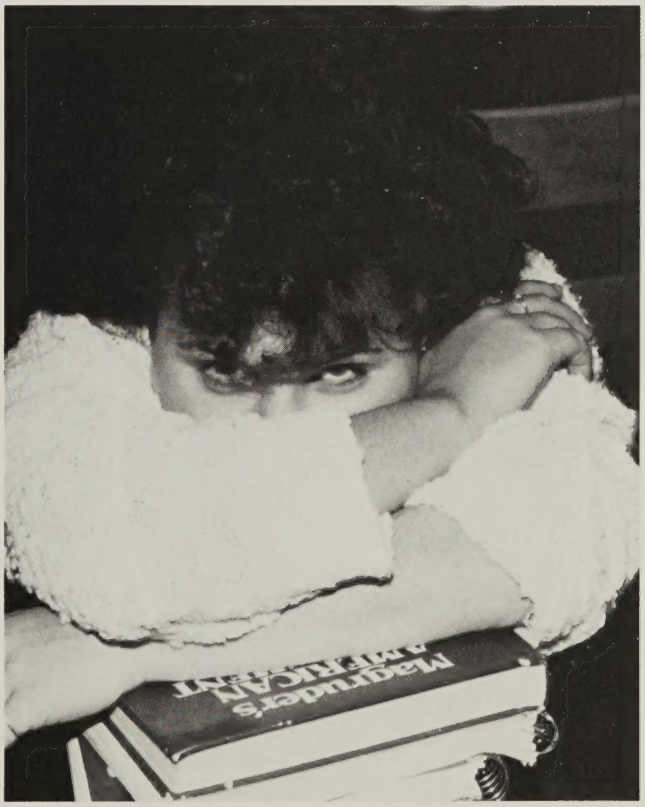
IT'S A HARD CLIMB

IT'S A TEAM EFFORT

A Time To Reap . . .
A Time To Sow . . .

For the seniors all the seeds are sown. All the molding is complete. These young men and women are being asked to take their places in society. The hours of study, tests, projects, coaching, playing, cheering, worrying, caring, and relaxing yield the class of 1988. Friendships, love affairs, heartbreaks, and uncountable memories have been formed and reformed. Only time will tell if each is prepared, but it is certain each has their own individual goals. Dreams of wealth and power; of love and marriage; of doctors, lawyers, laborers, teachers, business ventures, military ranks . . . These are the dreams of our seniors. Dreams to be reached by the same hard work that has pushed them to this magic moment.

It is time for our seniors to reap. To reap all they have sown at P.H.S. and to venture forth with a touch of class.



IT'S TIME TO GRADUATE?

The American way of life has emerged and endured because, as a people, we clearly recognized the need for knowledge. Thus, we believe that the primary purpose of the school is to educate and to guide the American youth in developing competence for participation in a changing democratic society. The school should seek to augment, not to replace, training received through other agencies in the community being served. Therefore, it is imperative that the major goal be to endeavor to promote the mental, physical, and moral growth of youth.

The enhancement of individual values, responsibility, dignity, and growth requires that educators be diligent in providing the necessary leadership for fulfilling the goals of quality education.

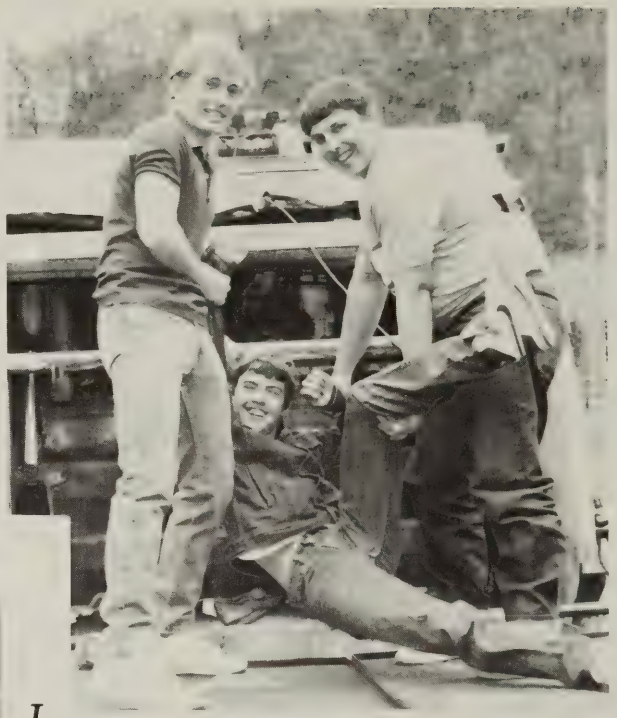
Teachers Have Class

The faculty at Pocahontas High are unique in their own way. They work very hard all year preparing us for when we get out into the world. LOOK . . . caught at some of their greatest moments. Even teachers have CLASS!

JUNIOR LIFE



Fun-filled Days . . .

Reading, Writing, and 'Rithmatic aren't the only interests of the juniors. Among others are fashionable dress, gourmet cooking, athletics, and plain old good times. Whatever the undertaking, the juniors are making ready their plans for the future. Plans such as college, armed forces service, trade school, work and most importantly to inherit the responsibility of being the "class" of P.H.S. . . .

Seniors of 1989.

JUNIORS

In Remembrance

of

Casey Lee Crist

I never really knew what you meant to me, not until you
were gone.
And then one day I realized that you weren't there and that I was all alone.

Since you left it feels like a part of me is missing.
Whenever I have a problem it now
seems like no one is listening.

Before I never knew what life
would be like without you.
But now my life has turned upside down, and my skies are no longer crystal blue.

But as long as I live I'll always feel you near
And I'll have locked within my heart a very special place with only the memories of you flowing there.

Judith Kennedy

We, the class of 1989, would like to dedicate our Junior divider page in loving memory of a great friend . . .

CLASS OF 90

The Sophomores are about to enter . . . "The Junior Zone." They will venture through classrooms with great hesitation, and strive to reach their destinations. Good Luck Class of '90. May the grades be with you.

CLASS OF 91

As Freshmen, you are exploring what is now known as your varsity years of high school. As upcoming Sophomores, you will be encountering new problems such as . . . what to wear to May Day or how to get to the Prom. But with determination you will be able to cope with these Close Encounters of the Sophomore Kind.

The freshman class loves to party, but they're also a group of studious, creative students. They know when to turn down the radio and crack the books.

A number of freshmen are very athletic as well. They participate in all sports: football, basketball and softball. They really put their heart into what they're doing.

They are the "Class" of 1991.

Meanness and Trouble

We never make the same mistake twice. We make new ones everyday.

It's important to look like you know what you're doing; even when it's obvious you don't.

What can we say? What can we say?

Hmmm. Isn't that special?

Sometimes a sport can go to your head.

As the junior high students begin their high school years, we would like to offer them a little bit of advice. Work to be the best you can be, and you can accomplish anything. Set your goals as high as you can, and strive to reach further. Dream the most impossible dreams and then make them come true. If anyone creates an obstacle in your path to the future, overcome it with perseverance and determination. Enjoy the following years because they will truly be the best ones of your lives.

So continue to work towards your dreams with that special "touch of class."

Homecoming '87

Queen: Donna Dawson escorted by Tony Maxwell

It was a night of excitement as everyone awaited that special moment when the queen would be announced. Everyone was tense wondering who it would be. The crowd became silent as the microphone began to crackle and announced, "The new 1987 Homecoming Queen is . . . DONNA DAWSON."

Although only one queen may be crowned, the student body saw ALL the attendants as queens in their eyes.

Congratulations to all!

Our fearless leader

The staff of the 1988 Wigwam would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude and appreciation to Mr. Gary Lane for all his work and dedication in helping make this year's annual one of the best ever. Without his help, we could have never accomplished all that we strived to. Due to your patience and perseverance we say thanks, Mr. Lane, for adding your own unique "Touch of Class."

Who me?

Annuae

The 1988 Annual Staff has worked diligently throughout the year to make this years annual one of the most outstanding ever. We tried to find a way to bring out the best in all the students and faculty here at Pocahontas using our creativity in designing the pages as unique as the people on it. Deadlines came and went and before we realized it, the annual was complete. We've seen that all of our hard work, dedication, and time has been worthwhile. Throughout the annual, we've strived to add our own special "touch of class" and we would like to thank the entire student body and faculty for helping us achieve this goal.

Indians

Spirit

Pride

A year of ups and downs; of triumphs and tribulations. The Indians set goals . . . some were reached, others not realized. But the accomplishments and setbacks are not the sum total of a sports season. The lifelong lessons of never quitting, of team work, of trust, of loyalty, of friendship, and of self-discipline are the true rewards for an athlete. Memories fade, accomplishments are forgotten, but the qualities an athlete improve within himself last a lifetime. These qualities make individuals who can act and live and feel true CLASS.

The Senior Lady Indians

87

As we, the seniors, look back at our past years of playing basketball, we realize that we have learned many important factors about the sport. With the help and support of our coaches Don Carter and Gloria French and the student body, our basketball years were a success even though we didn't win every game. We would like to give a special thank-you to all who came and supported us even in defeat. We will always remember the times the team shared, win or lose. Good luck to the upcoming varsity players!

COACHES

It was a good year for the Lady Indians. One we will never forget. Sometimes we won — sometimes we lost but through it all Coach Carter stood by us.

We laughed together; we cried together; but whatever we did it was always together. We were more than a team — we were friends.

CHEERLEADERS

Isn't this just lovely!

At this time we would like to thank a very hardworking group of people. The Varsity Cheerleaders. These girls spent many long hours of practicing in order to perfect their cheers, and make the exciting signs that helped us to cheer our teams. Thank you for bringing pep into our dull lives. KEEP IT UP!

The pep band produces a great sound and a good spirit for everyone. This group's music helped to boost the spirits of the players, and inspired and entertained basketball fans as well. We all appreciate Mr. Erskine for getting the pep band started and the personal effort each member has contributed. We look forward to the 1988-89 season.

One of the highlights of our ballgames, the great orange and black streak that marches down the streets turning heads everywhere. They are proud of what they represent. They are: The Pocahontas High School Marching Band. These students, directed by Mr. Earl Erskine, have worked hard, and in our opinion, truly have a touch of class.

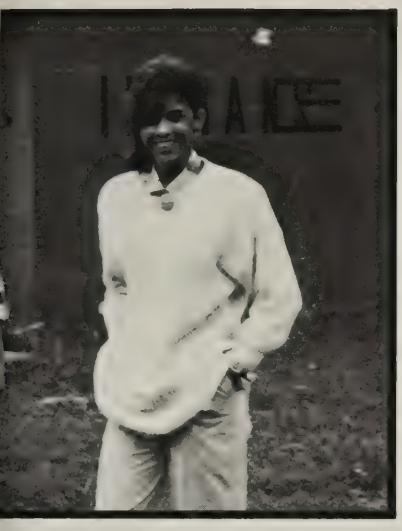
LIFELINE:

DRESS FOR SUCCESS



Baggy, saggy, sloppy, neat. New, worn, short, long. These are adjectives to describe the clothes that set today's trends. They are found on the body, on the head, on the feet, on the backs of chairs, in heaps on the floor, hanging in lockers and stuffed in gym bags. "Big" shirts, mini-skirts. Suspenders and lace. Bows and ankle socks. Jeans and pleats, T-s' and turtlenecks. Wild collars and well worn blue. Whatever the style, one accessory is a must . . . Whatever the color, whatever the brand or height . . . it has to be "tennies." The shoes make the man (woman). The formula for success is simple:

Take Control.

Of your mind.

When everyday pressures make it difficult for you to deal with your feelings, thoughts, relationships and behavior, The Behavioral Medicine Center at Princeton Community Hospital can help set your mind at ease.

Our 24-hour crisis and information hotline is here whenever you need to talk. It's confidential. It's free. We can help.

Call 487-7599, day or night.

And your body.

Classes and meetings, ballgames and dates. With so many things pulling for your attention, sometimes how you feel takes a backseat to things you have to do.

24:Hour ExpressCare at Princeton Community Hospital is a round-the-clock clinic for treatment of minor illnesses and injuries.

With a sprain, a strain, a fever, a "bug", 24:Hour ExpressCare can put you back on the track to good health—fast. No appointment needed.

Now being sick doesn't have to cut into your busy schedule.

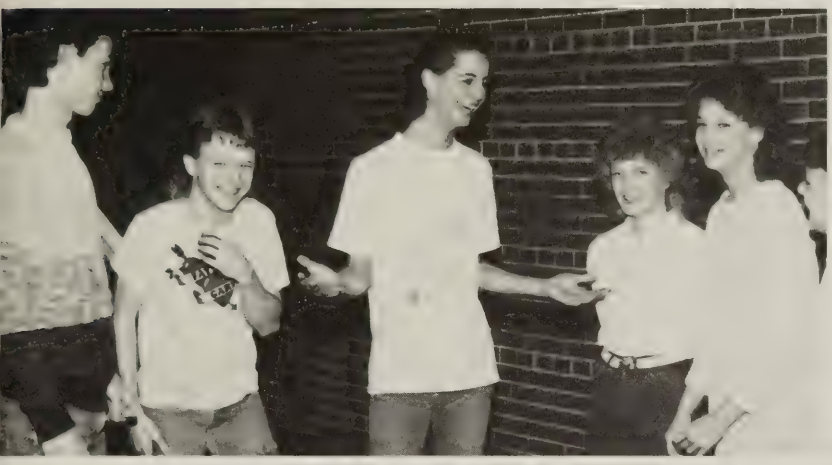
Here We Go



"I can't get a date, and I hate to beg but . . ."

. . . another year's gone by at P.H.S. We had our good times and our bad; learned our lessons for this year, but we know there'll be more to come in the next. As we say good-bye to the old seniors, hello to the new and welcome to the seventh graders coming to P.H.S., we'd like to take one final look at how our student body adds their own individual "touch of class."

Again . . .

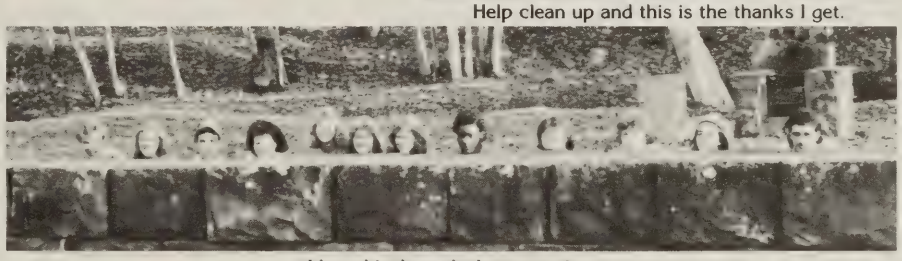
Help clean up and this is the thanks I get.

"Love Bug"



I heard it through the grapevine.

Young Love

Don't look at me!

Class of '89 "Hang Loose"

The end of another year.
Memories have been made.
Lives have been molded.
Time changes so many things,
But one thing endures . . .
